Nalei has been a beloved part of Rosalyn Bruyere's workshops in Hawaii since the start and participants have been moved by her offerings and her presence. Her Hawaiian chanting routinely moves people to tears. Many have asked for more time with Nalei and this year she is offering her own workshop, just after Rosalyn's for the convenience of the participants. Don't miss this unique and very special Hawaiian experience!

Wahine Ua under the direction of Naleialoha Napaepae-Kunewa presents:

A KONA HEMA

It is said that in the time of my great ancestral healers Laeakaumanamana Inoa and Kawaihālaniwailuau (approx 1000 A.D.) the population of the leeward coast of Hawaii island increased. The need for sanctuary for the increased populace were either held by a direct descendant of the noble class or land set asides. Based on stellar reflection on the land the rising of Makali'i (Pleiades constellation) these permanent land bases were sanctioned by the holy healers. Join me as we step lightly upon the most sacred grounds of Pu'uhonua O Honaunau south Kona.

Sat. Nov. 7, 2015 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. (Brown Bag Lunch 11:30—12:15)
Pu'uhonua o Honaunau National Historical Park
Program begins at Pu'uhonua o Honaunau NHP Visitor Center

A KOHALA HEMA

Na Ki'i Pohaku o Anaeho'omalū

My grandmother's childhood memory of her great grandfather's name Nahale A O Anaeho'omalū provides a wealth of information for my family's identity. He is united with Pule I Moku. The pair become the "Holy of the Holies". They are the embodiment of "Fire and Water." Visit Na Ki'i Pohaku the stone carved images that offer a record based on that moment in time.

Pu'ukohola Heiau

Further north the ancestral temples of the deities, Lono, Ku, Kane and Kanaloa offer a graduated view of Heiau, stone temples above and below sea level. Built to capture stellar reflections that fulfill prophecy. Between the first and second temples are the grounds of the sanctuary, Pelekane that naturally evolve and adapt to suit the times. A reminder that fire and water may disagree in order to agree. Amidst the turmoil of suffering there is peace.
